What is cooler than a Lace Dress? What is there to it to make it uncomfortable? It weighs next to nothing, and there is a fluffy jauntiness about it that is bewitching.

We have closer reeled the prices on a line or two—that brings them nearer to most of you. See how it is:

42-inch Chantilly Flouncing that was $1.50 is only $1 now.

65-inch Chantilly that were $4 and $5 are now $2 and $2.50—and don't you believe the qualities have lessened any, or that the patterns are moss grown—they are not. They are as fresh as Pinks.

42-inch and 45-inch La Tosca Flouncing, either Vandyke or straight edge patterns, from $2 to $4.

42-inch Russian Net Flouncings, $2 to $2.50.

45-inch and 48-inch Brussels Net Flouncings, from $2 to $6, in spots, diamond and Vandyke patterns.

48-inch Russian Net, from 75c. to $2—figured, spotted and striped.

A wider La Tosca than the one above, and more elaborate in design as well, $1 to $3.50—more spots, stripes and figures.

48-inch Brussels Net, from $1 to $5 a yard.

45-inch Black Striped Gauze, $1.15 and $1.25 a yard.

42-inch and 44-inch Plain Black Russian, La Tosca, and Brussels Nets, 75c. to $2.25 a yard.

45-inch Russian Net in colors—navy blue, brown and gray—75c. a yard.

Crope de Chine and Japanese Crepes, in new expressions for street or evening, $1.25 a yard.

Some fresh "Point D'Gene" Laces, in white and beige, to use with India silks and ginghams.

Torchon, Medici, Oriental, Valenciennes, Point, Gauze, and Chantilly Laces, in all widths from a mere line to a flouncing.

Now we are not inviting you to look at the old patterns. These are all new, and if you will believe us, the richest we have ever seen. The prices are not much, either. A "try" to match them elsewhere will prove that.

SOCIETY NEWS AND CHAT.

The handsome residence of Mr. S. H. Kauffmann, 1421 Massachusetts avenue, was gay last evening with the guests invited to Mrs. Kauffmann's tea. About 1,000 invitations were out, and it seemed as if all so fortunate as to receive them were present. The beautiful rooms were decorated with roses, pots of white narcissus, snowballs, and dogwood blossoms. In the dining-room a delicious luncheon was provided. The table had a centre piece of maidenhair ferns and candelabra with white shades. Mrs. Kauffmann had gathered around her a group of charming women and beautiful young girls. Mrs. Kauffmann wore a light heliotrope satin brocade, with white crepe trimmings; Miss Kauffmann, cream and blue bengaline, with blue ribbons; Mrs. Rudolph Kauffmann, an elegant Paris gown of black brocade, with rose front and trimmings; Miss Guthrie, a guest of the house, looked handsome in blue crepe; Mrs. Parker Mann, white silk brocade; Miss De Barre, white silk; Mrs. Chambers, terra-cotta-colored silk; Miss Huff, chocolate satin brocade; Miss Chambers, blue crepe; Mrs. Hibbs, white lace; Miss Mary Huff, yellow crepe; Miss Huff, white lace; Miss Burdette, pink crepe. Miss Galt presided gracefully at the round table, where café frappé was dispensed. In the back drawing-room, in white d'espirt, among the numerous guests were Minister and Madame Mendonga, Dr. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nordhoff, Mrs. W. E. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Spofford, Mrs. Pomeroy, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt, Governor and Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Mullett, Mr. A. G. Headon, Minister and Madame Romero, Miss Collis Smith, Mrs. McCarthy, Miss Elliott, Mr. F. B. Loomis, Mrs. Clarkson, Mrs. Jules Guthridge, Mr. and Mrs. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Seaton Perry, Miss Richards, Mr. and Mrs. DeB. Keim, Mrs. and Miss Carmen, Mr. C. J. Messer, Miss Jeanette Messer, Mr. Ulke, Mrs. and Miss Ulke, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bigelow, Miss Bigelow, Mrs. John W. Foster, Miss Johnson, Miss Decca, Senator Jones, Miss Davies, Major Charles Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Godwin, Miss Nimmo, Miss Edith Soule, ex-Mayor and Miss Emory, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Clephane, and Mr. and Mrs. Cabell.

The children's class of Miss Baden's dancing school gave their fancy dress May ball on the evening of the 1st. About eighty of the scholars, accompanied by their parents and friends, were present. The grand march was led through many difficult movements by Master Ralph Johnstone and Elizabeth Way. The feature of the evening was "The Minister of Olden Times," danced by sixteen. This was led by Master Craig Lidy and Miss Bessie Draney, Clarence Barnard and Janie Carlton, Alvin Skells and Maud De Mar, Eugene Estelle and Bessie Johnson, Claud Lumsford and Estelle Ellis, Charles Young and Edith Grimes, William Abbey and Marie Gines, Lee Crandle and Annie Watkins. The Loomis Lancers was beautifully danced by eight of the smallest children, all in costume of the last century. The children taking part in this were Ralph Johnstone, Florence Keech, Claud Lumsford, Margery Edmonstone, Charles Young, Bessie Keech, Charles Ourand, and Bessie Draney. The costumes of all were remarkably pretty, one of the most notable being that of the baby of the class, beautiful little Ella Dickey—a bride with sweeping train and veil.

The marriage of Miss Jennie McLellan Moses, daughter of Mrs. Moses, of Twenty-second street, and Dr. Chandler Baker, of Sumner, S. C., took place on Wednesday evening last at the residence of the bride's mother. Only the immediate family of the bride and a few of her personal friends were present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Harding, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The parlor was handsomely decorated with flowers, plants, and a large floral bell was suspended from the ceiling, under which the young couple stood. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Lieut. Moses, of the Marine Corps, and was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Manning, of South Carolina, secretary to Senator Butler. Many beautiful presents were received from friends. After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Dr. and Mrs. Baker left for Charlottesville, Va., thence to their future home in Sumner, S. C., where the groom occupies a high standing as a citizen and physician.

There was a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Charles P. Calvert and Miss Jennie Gelston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gelston, were married, at the residence of the bride's parents, 630 East Capitol street, by Rev. Dr. John Chester, of the Metropolitan Presbyterian Church. The spacious parlors were exquisitely decorated with roses, palms, and lilies, and were filled with relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride wore a beautiful dress of light French gray Henrietta, trimmed with velvet to match, and diamond ornaments. She carried a bouquet of Puritan roses. At the close of the ceremony and congratulations there was a bountiful repast served. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Hattie. Dr. Walter S. Ferris acted as best man. The happy couple left the city at 11 o'clock P. M. for an extended tour North, visiting Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, and Boston.

The marriage of Mr. A. Howard Speake and Miss Alice M. Nichols took place on Wednesday evening last, April 30, at the home of the bride's mother, 450 Q street northwest. The pretty parlors of the home were decorated with choice cut flowers, and the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. H. R. Naylor, was witnessed by quite a number of friends. The bride's dress was of cream silk Henrietta. Her bouquet was composed of lilies of the valley and rosebuds. A handsome supper was served. Among those present were Mrs. Alice Nichols, Mr. Harry Nichols, Miss Maud Nichols, Dr. and Mrs. E. K. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lusk, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Speake, Mrs. Henrietta Browne, Mr. C. Orton Browne, Miss Roberta Blair, Miss Snee, Mr. H. E. Perlie, Mrs. J. L. Paine, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzhugh, Mrs. John Garrett, and Mrs. C. A. Caywood.

Miss Mary Jones, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Senator Jones, of Arkansas, performed a very pleasant service on Wednesday evening, that showed she possessed a good deal of self-possession in a trying situation. It was at a wedding in one of our churches, and by some mishap the trained organist failed to appear to perform the part that is almost necessary on such occasions, the wedding march on the big organ. After waiting in vain for the professional music-maker, the fact was known that Miss Jones was in the congregation, and on being asked to play, she replied that she never had any experience with organ playing, but if they chose to accept she would willingly make the attempt. She acquitted herself with great credit, and received the earnest thanks of bride and groom.

Mr. William E. Gibson, of this city, and Miss Mary Irene Todd, of Magnolia, Ark., were married on Wednesday evening last at New York Avenue Church, Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D. D., officiating. The bride was attired in a becoming dress of pale gray faille and velvet. The ushers were Mr. W. Gibson White and Mr. Junius W. Todd. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will reside at 134 D street northwest. Among those present were Senator and Mrs. J. K. Jones, Hon. and Mrs. T. C. McRae, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Riley, Mr. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Darby, and others, of Arkansas, and Hon. J. D. Richardson, of Tennessee.

The Garfield Sewing Circle met at the residence of Mrs. R. J. Rutherford, 1311 Corcoran street, on Friday afternoon. Although luncheons had been taboored there was a full attendance, and, as a reward of merit, the president gave a treat of delicious lemonade. Many beautiful articles for the fancy tables are coming in, and as Mrs. John A. Logan is expected home not later than the middle of May, the fête so long anticipated will speedily follow her return. The Garfield Sewing Circle will be entertained this week by Mrs. Dr. Ahnsworth and Mrs. Col. Haywood at 1318 Rhode Island avenue, at 11 o'clock A. M. A full attendance is desired, as the work on hand must be finished for the fête to be held this month.

Miss Jeannie Moses, of this city, was married to Dr. S. C. Baker, of Sumner, S. C., last Wednesday evening, at 1004 Twenty-second street. The bride looked lovely in heavy white silk, mousseline de sole front, and bodice cut V and trimmed with old lace. She carried orange blossoms sent her from Florida for the occasion. Rev. Dr. Harding performed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. After supper the couple left for a Southern trip. They will make Sumner, S. C., their home. Owing to a recent death in the family of the bride only a few intimate friends were present.

Miss Letitia Aldrich will enact Galatea at the benefit performance for the Home for Incurables next Saturday evening at Lincoln Hall, Mr. Hubbard T. Smith will play Chryso; Mr. George C. Hazleton, Jr., Pygmalion; Mr. John J. Key, Leucippe; Miss Mab Bigelow, Cynisca; Miss Mildred Fuller, Myrline, and Miss Bertha Lincoln, Daphne. Mrs. Senator Stewart, Mrs. Senator Dolph, and Mrs. Halliday have engaged boxes for the performance.

Mrs. Mary A. Hollister has issued cards announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Letitia Aldrich, and Dr. S. C. Baker, a prominent young physician of this city. The wedding took place on Wednesday, April 30. Accompanying the announcement were cards to the effect that Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Adams will be at home Thursday, May 22, from 9 to 12, at their new home, 1632 K street northwest.

Brackett, Harry Dowling, Seymour Wright, William F. Mahony, and Harry Chase. Mr. and Mrs. Draney left on the 8:15 train for a prolonged tour of the East.

IF YOU A-TRAVELING GO AND WANT A TRUNK

What we mean by a trunk is NOT four pieces of common board loosely joined together, painted fancily to catch the eye and gotten up with all conceivable style, which will all collapse the first time that invincible "baggage smasher" gets his work in on it. That's not the kind of a trunk we sell you. What we sell you will stand all the knocking about and rough handling that all the baggage men in the United States can give it. Made to wear. We know HOW they are made—made to our order—with all the modern improvements known to trunk makers.

All of our trunks have patent swing trays; does away with lifting the heavily-laden tray out of the trunk every time you wish to get an article out of the bottom of your trunk.

PRICES: Well, there's a good part of your RAILROAD FARE saved if we sell you your Trunk. We buy in quantities and sell in quantities, the reason of lower prices than trunk dealers. Then we don't rely on our trunk department alone for all our profits; stands to reason that we can afford to sell cheaper than one who does.
